Narrative

On May 4th, 2014, I responded to a report of a two vehicle collision in the area of 510th Avenue and Zumwalt Station Road. It was reported to me from dispatch that one person was possibly ejected from a vehicle. I responded from a few miles away.

I arrived on scene and viewed a yellow Jeep Wrangler (IA-CBG864) in the northwest ditch of that intersection and a white 1996 Ford Crown Victoria (IA-443ZX) in the middle of the road. A female, later identified as Lindzy Marie Hansen (IA-130AC7280), was on her back behind the Jeep in the ditch. There were a few civilians that stopped to render aid that informed me that Ms. Hansen was thrown from the Jeep. She had a small amount of blood on her right hand and her face. She was advised not to move and I checked on the other occupants of the jeep.

I spoke with Logan Cory Hamm (IA-174CC5466) who advised me that he was in the front passenger seat of the Jeep. He did not complain of any injuries, however did have minor cuts and scrapes. The driver of the Jeep was identified as Chelsey Marissa Kulla (IA-205AD4221). Ms. Kulla did not know what happened and seemed dazed.

I then spoke to the driver of the Ford, Travis Andrew Campbell (IA-933AA0052), who stated that the Jeep was pulled to the west side of the road where Zumwalt Station Road meets 510th Avenue. Mr. Campbell was driving southbound on 510th Avenue. He informed me that the Jeep then pulled into traffic, as if making a U-turn.

According to Mr. Hamm and Ms. Hansen, the Jeep was traveling southbound on 510th Avenue when the check engine light came on in the Jeep. Ms. Kulla planed on turning around to get another vehicle at Zumwalt Station. While executing the U-turn, she did not see Mr. Campbell and pulled out into traffic in front of him.

Both vehicles sustained heavy damage. The evidence on the scene and the damage to the vehicles corroborates the statements made by the occupants of the vehicles.

I met with the occupants at Mary Greeley Medical Center and issued a citation for Failing to Yield Upon Entering Through a Highway to Ms. Kulla.

Photos were taken of the scene.
